

I think that the NAB's involvement in the issue is purely selfish irrational. Their interest lies in the hands of the groups that feed them with money and power. Their motives do not consist of informing the public as a whole whether it be for emergency, news, entertainment, etc.. They have ulterior motives and should be looked at as a nuisance.